JURISDICTION

4. This Accusation is brought before the Registrar of Contractors (Registrar) for the Contractors' State License Board, Department of Consumer Affairs, under the authority of the following laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code unless otherwise indicated.

5. Section 118(b) of the Code provides, in pertinent part, that the expiration of a license shall not deprive the Registrar of jurisdiction to proceed with a disciplinary action during the period within which the license may be renewed, restored, reissued or reinstated. Under Code section 7076.1, the Registrar may reinstate a cancelled license if the licensee pays all of the fees and meets all of the qualifications and requirements for obtaining an original license.

6. Section 7076.5 of the Code provides, in pertinent part, that the inactive status of a license shall not bar any disciplinary action for violating provisions of the Contractors' State License Law (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 7000, et seq.).

1        7. Section 7090 of the Business and Professions Code ("Code") provides, in pertinent 2 part, that the Registrar may suspend or revoke any license or registration if the licensee or 3 registrant is guilty of or commits any one or more of the acts or omissions constituting cause for 4 disciplinary action.

5        8. Code section 7095 provides, in pertinent part, that the Registrar in making his order 6 may:

7        (a) Provide for the immediate complete suspension by the licensee of all operations as a 8 contractor during the period fixed by the decision.

9        (b) Permit the licensee to complete any or all contracts shown by competent evidence 10 taken at the hearing to be then uncompleted.

11        (c) Impose upon the licensee compliance with such specific conditions as may be just in 12 connection with its operations as a contractor disclosed at the hearing, and may further provide 13 that until such conditions are complied with, no application for restoration of the suspended or 14 revoked licensee shall be accepted by the Registrar.

15        9. Code section 7097 states:

16                Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 7121 and 7122, when any 17 licensee has been suspended by a decision of the registrar pursuant to an 18 accusation or pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 7071.17, Section 7085.6 or 19 7090.1, any additional license issued under this chapter [the Contractors' State License Law] in the name of the licensee or for which the licensee furnished qualifying experience and appearance under the provisions of Section 7068, may be suspended by the registrar without further notice.

20        10. Code section 7098 states:

21                Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 7121 and 7122, when any 22 license has been revoked under the provisions of this chapter [the Contractors' 23 State License Law], any additional license issued under this chapter in the name 24 of the licensee or for which the licensee furnished qualifying experience and appearance under the provisions of Section 7068, may be revoked by the registrar without further notice.

25        11. Section 7106.5 of the Code provides, in pertinent part, that the expiration, 26 cancellation, forfeiture, or suspension of a license by operation of law or by order or decision of 27 the registrar, or a court of law, or the voluntary surrender of the license shall not deprive the 28

1 registrar of jurisdiction to proceed with any investigation of or action or disciplinary proceeding 2 against the license, or to render a decision suspending or revoking the license.

3 12. Code section 7121 states:

4 Any person who has been denied a license for a reason other than failure
5 to document sufficient satisfactory experience for a supplemental classification 6 for an existing license, or who has had his or her license revoked, or whose 7 license is under suspension, or who has failed to renew his or her license while 8 it was under suspension, or who has been a member, officer, director, or 9 associate of any partnership, corporation, firm, or association whose application 10 for a license has been denied for a reason other than failure to document 11 sufficient satisfactory experience for a supplemental classification for an 12 existing license, or whose license has been revoked, or whose license is under suspension, or who has failed to renew a license while it was under suspension, or participated in any of the prohibited acts for which the license was denied, suspended, or revoked, shall be prohibited from serving as an officer, director, associate, partner, or qualifying individual of a licensee, and the employment, than as a non-supervising bona fide employee shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action.

13 13. Code section 7121.5 states:

14 Any person who was the qualifying individual on a revoked license, 15 or of a license under suspension, or of a license that was not renewed while 16 it was under suspension, shall be prohibited from serving as an officer, 17 director, associate, partner, or qualifying individual of a licensee, whether 18 or not the individual had knowledge of or participated in the prohibited acts or omissions for which the license was revoked, or suspended, and the employment, election, or association of such person by a licensee shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action.

19 14. Code section 7122.5 states:

20 The performance by any individual, partnership, corporation, firm, or 21 association of any act or omission constituting a cause for disciplinary action, 22 likewise constitutes a cause for disciplinary action against any licensee who at 23 the time such act or omission occurred was the responsible managing employee, 24 qualifying partner, responsible managing officer, or qualifying member of such individual, partnership, corporation, firm, or association, whether or not he had knowledge of or participated in the prohibited act or omission."

12 (c) A responsible managing employee for the purpose of this chapter [the 13 Contractors' State License Law] shall mean an individual who is a bona fide 14 employee of the applicant and is actively engaged in the classification of work for 15 which that responsible managing employee is the qualifying person in behalf of the applicant.

16 (d) The board shall, in addition, require an applicant who qualifies by means 17 of a responsible managing employee under either paragraph (1) or (2) of 3 that state."

4 16. Section 7083 of the Code states:

5 All licensees shall notify the registrar in writing within 90 days of any 6 change to information recorded under this chapter [the Contractors' State License 7 Law]. This notification requirement shall include, but not be limited to, changes 8 in address, personnel, business name, qualifying individual bond exemption 9 pursuant to Section 7071.9, or exemption to qualify multiple licenses pursuant to 11 Failure of the licensee to notify the registrar of any change to information 12 within 90 days shall cause the change to be effective the date the written 13 notification is received at the board's headquarters office.

14 Failure to notify the registrar of the changes within the 90 days is grounds 15 for disciplinary action.

16 17. Code section 7107 states:

23 construction project or operation or in any modification of such contract 24 constitutes a cause for disciplinary action.

25 19. Code section 7115 states:

26 Failure in any material respect to comply with the provisions of this chapter, 27 or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter, or to comply with the 28 provisions of Section 7106 of the Public Contract Code, constitutes a cause for disciplinary action.

29 20. Section 7117 of the Code states that "[a]cting in the capacity of a contractor under 30 any license issued hereunder except: (a) in the name of the licensee as set forth upon the license, 31 or (b) in accordance with the personnel of the licensee as set forth in the application for such 32 license, or as later changed as provided in this chapter [the Contractors' License Law], constitutes 33 a cause for disciplinary action."

21. Code Section 7125.4 states:

(b) Any qualifier for a license who, under Section 7068.1 is responsible for assuring that a licensee complies with the provisions of this chapter, is also guilty of a misdemeanor for committing or failing to prevent the commission of any of the acts that are cause for disciplinary action under this section.

COST RECOVERY

23. If a case settles, recovery of investigation and enforcement costs may be included in a stipulated settlement.

24. Section 11519, subdivision (d), of the Government Code states, in pertinent part, that the Registrar may require restitution of damages suffered as a condition of probation in the event probation is ordered.

RIC PROJECT

25. R.I.C. Construction Co., Inc., (hereinafter "RIC") is a general building contractor in California. In 2011, RIC requested from Respondent a bid on a public works project for the County of Riverside. Along with the bid request, RIC sent Respondent a package of forms that specified the requirements a bidding contractor had to meet in order to submit a bid for the cabinetry and countertops for the public works project. One of the specifications required the

1 bidding contractor to have certification through the Woodwork Institute (WI) or a WIC 2 certificate.

3 26. In response to the request for a bid, on or about May 17, 2011, Respondent, through 4 employee David Szeto, submitted a bid for $64,826 to RIC. On the bid, Respondent listed "Regal 5 Woodworks Inc." as the contractor with Respondent's license number, 960281. On July 13, 6 2011, RIC notified Respondent of RIC's acceptance of the May 17, 2011 bid to provide labor and 7 material to complete the plastic laminate cabinetry and countertop work in the amount of 8 $64,826.00. Relying on Respondent's bid, RIC submitted a bid to the County of Riverside as the 9 prime contractor. RIC's bid named Respondent as one of the subcontractors on the project. RIC 10 was awarded the prime contract on the public works project by the County of Riverside.

11 27. On or about January 19, 2012, RIC sent copies of the written subcontract based on 12 Respondent's bid, along with a CD containing copies of the plans and specifications that had 13 been previously used by Respondent to bid the job, to Respondent for execution. On or about 14 January 24, 2012, RIC was notified by Sam Abdollahi, an employee for Respondent, that 15 Respondent did not hold the necessary WIC certification. Abadollahi requested a waiver of the 16 requirement for WIC certification.

17 28. On or about February 16, 2012, RIC notified Respondent that the architect would not 18 grant a waiver of the WIC certification. RIC again requested that Respondent execute the written 19 contract. When RIC did not hear back from Respondent, RIC sent notice to Respondent that RIC 20 intended to make a request to the County of Riverside for Respondent's removal from the project 21 for failure to return the written contract. Respondent did not respond to RIC.

22 29. On February 24, 2012, RIC made an official request for substitution of subcontractors 23 to the County of Riverside based on Respondent not being qualified to meet the specifications on 24 the WIC certificate and the failure to return the executed contract. On February 29, 2012, the 25 County of Riverside sent Respondent a notice of the request for substitution and afforded 26 Respondent an opportunity to submit a written objection. No objection was received and the 27 County authorized the substitution. Thereafter, RIC accepted and entered into a contract with 28 another subcontractor in the amount of $106,666.31. RIC incurred a financial injury in the 1 amount of $42,837.30. Thereafter, RIC filed a complaint with the Contractors State License 2 Board.

3 30. On or about May 14, 2012, a Board investigator interviewed Respondent.
4 Respondent stated that he remembered receiving a package of forms with the bid request, but that 5 he did not read everything because "there were too many things to read." Respondent was 6 interviewed again on August 23, 2012 by a Board investigator. Respondent stated that he did not 7 prepare the bid documents but that he reviewed them prior to the bid being submitted to RIC.
8 Respondent stated that he allowed his employee, David Szeto, to prepare the bid. Respondent 9 admitted to the investigator that David Szeto and Sam Abdollahi were his salespersons, but they 10 no longer worked for him. Respondent also stated that he believed he was allowed to use his sole 11 license number 960281 because he was in the process of forming a corporation, Regal 12 Woodworks Inc. Respondent stated that he never saw the RIC contract and that he did not have 13 workers compensation. The investigator asked Respondent to confirm his address. Respondent 14 stated he had not been at his address of record (the Woodland Hills address) for a year.
