20 JURISDICTION

21 5. This Accusation is brought before the Registrar for the Board, under the authority of 22 the following laws. All section references are to the Business and Professions Code unless 23 otherwise indicated.

24 6. Section 118, subdivision (b), provides that the expiration of a license shall not deprive 25 the Registrar of jurisdiction to proceed with a disciplinary action during the period within which 26 the license may be renewed, restored, reissued or reinstated. Under Section 7076.1, the Registrar
27 may reinstate a cancelled license if the licensee pays all of the fees and meets all of the 28 qualifications and requirements for obtaining an original license.

1       7.    Section 7076.5 provides that the inactive status of a license shall not bar any
2 disciplinary action for violating provisions of the Contractors' State License Law (Bus. & Prof.
3 Code, § 7000, et seq.).

4       8.    Section 7090 provides that the Registrar may suspend or revoke any license or 5 registration if the licensee or registrant is guilty of or commits any one or more of the acts or 6 omissions constituting cause for disciplinary action.

7       9.    Section 7095 states that the Registrar in making his order may:

8       “(a) Provide for the immediate complete suspension by the licensee of all operations as a 9 contractor during the period fixed by the decision.

10       “(b) Permit the licensee to complete any or all contracts shown by competent evidence
11 taken at the hearing to be then uncompleted.

12       “(c) Impose upon the licensee compliance with such specific conditions as may be just in 13 connection with its operations as a contractor disclosed at the hearing, and may further provide 14 that until such conditions are complied with no application for restoration of the suspended or 15 revoked licensee shall be accepted by the Registrar.”

16       10.   Sections 7097 and 7098 provide that when any license has been suspended or revoked
17 following a hearing, the Registrar may suspend or revoke any additional license issued in the name 18 of the licensee or for which the licensee furnished qualifying experience and appearance under the 19 provisions of 7068, without further notice.

20       11.   Section 7106.5 provides that the expiration, cancellation, forfeiture, revocation or 21 suspension of a license by operation of law or by order or decision of the registrar, or a court of 22 law, or the voluntary surrender of the license shall not deprive the registrar of jurisdiction to 23 proceed with any investigation of or action or disciplinary proceeding against the license, or to 24 render a decision suspending or revoking the license.

25       12.   Section 7121 states:

26       “A person who has been denied a license for a reason other than failure to document
27 sufficient satisfactory experience for a supplemental classification for an existing license, or who 28 has had his or her license revoked, or whose license is under suspension, or who has failed to

1 renew his or her license while it was under suspension, or who has been a partner, officer, director,
2 manager, or associate of any partnership, corporation, limited liability company, firm, or 3 association whose application for a license has been denied for a reason other than failure to 4 document sufficient satisfactory experience for a supplemental classification for an existing license,
5 or whose license has been revoked, or whose license is under suspension, or who has failed to 6 renew a license while it was under suspension, and while acting as a partner, officer, director,
7 manager, or associate had knowledge of or participated in any of the prohibited acts for which the 8 license was denied, suspended, or revoked, shall be prohibited from serving as an officer, director,
9 associate, partner, manager, qualifying individual, or member of the personnel of record of a 10 licensee, and the employment, election, or association of this type of person by a licensee in any 11 capacity other than as a nonsupervising bona fide employee shall constitute grounds for 12 disciplinary action."

13 13. Section 7121.5 states:

14 "A person who was the qualifying individual on a revoked license, or of a license under 15 suspension, or of a license that was not renewed while it was under suspension, shall be prohibited
16 from serving as an officer, director, associate, partner, manager, or qualifying individual of a 17 licensee, whether or not the individual had knowledge of or participated in the prohibited acts or 18 omissions for which the license was revoked, or suspended, and the employment, election, or 19 association of that person by a licensee shall constitute grounds for disciplinary action."

20 14. Section 7122 states:

21 "The performance by an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, firm,
22 or association of an act or omission constituting a cause for disciplinary action, likewise constitutes 23 a cause for disciplinary action against a licensee other than the individual qualifying on behalf of 24 the individual or entity, if the licensee was a partner, officer, director, manager, or associate of that 25 individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, firm, or association at the time the 26 act or omission occurred, and had knowledge of or participated in the prohibited act or omission."

27 15. Section 7122.5 states:

28 "The performance by an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, firm,

1 or association of an act or omission constituting a cause for disciplinary action, likewise constitutes
2 a cause for disciplinary action against a licensee who at the time that the act or omission occurred
3 was the qualifying individual of that individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company,
4 firm, or association, whether or not he or she had knowledge of or participated in the prohibited
5 act or omission."

6 16. Section 7141 states:

7 "Except as otherwise provided in this chapter [the Contractors' State License Law], a license
8 that has expired may be renewed at any time within five years after its expiration by filing an 9 application for renewal on a form prescribed by the registrar, and payment of the appropriate
10 renewal fee. Renewal under this section shall be effective on the date an acceptable renewal
11 application is filed with the board. The licensee shall be considered unlicensed and there will be a 12 break in the licensing time between the expiration date and the date the renewal becomes effective.

13 If the license is renewed after the expiration date, the licensee shall also pay the delinquency fee
14 prescribed by this chapter [the Contractors' State License Law]. If so renewed, the license shall 15 continue in effect through the date provided in Section 7140 which next occurs after the effective
16 date of the renewal, when it shall expire if it is not again renewed.

17 "If a license is not renewed within five years, the licensee shall make application for a license
18 pursuant to Section 7066."

26 ///

27 BACKGROUND

28 25. In or about 2011, Respondent’s RMO, Stanley Deskovick, age 79, received a mailer

1 from "RMO Agency, LLC" advertising income of $200 per month for licensed contractors in 2 exchange for being the RMO on contractor's licenses needing a RMO. Deskovick was introduced
3 to Nir Ashkenazi, or his business partner, who asked him to be the RMO of their company.
4 Respondent agreed to be the RMO on U Save Remodeling, Inc. and Design Décor, Inc.
5 Respondent's RMO received monthly payments of $400 from RMO Agency, LLC in exchange for 6 serving as the RMO of U Save Remodeling, Inc. and Design Décor, Inc. Deskovick alleges that 7 he is not an owner or shareholder of Respondent, has not performed any job duties on any of 8 Respondent's construction projects, and does not have any job duties that relate to the operation
9 or management of Respondent's contracting business. Deskovick contends he does not have any 10 knowledge about, nor did he participate, in a construction project performed by Respondent for 11 Emma Hill (discussed below in the following paragraph). On or about February 2, 2012, Stanley
12 Deskovick resigned as Respondent's RMO.

13 HILL PROJECT

14 26. On or about July 10, 2012, Respondent entered into a written contract with Emma 15 Hill, an 86-year-old disabled woman, to install windows at her residence, located at 940 4th Street, 16 Fillmore, California 93015, for $4,850.00 (Hill Project). The homeowner did not ask for 17 Respondent's services, but a sales representative solicited her at her home. Using high pressure 18 sales tactics employed by an unidentified sales representative and after initially declining his 19 requests four times, Hill was pressured into entering into a contract with Respondent for the 20 installation of three average-size windows, two small windows, and a railing on a small three-step
21 patio at her 900 square foot home. Respondent promised the homeowner that she would only 22 have to pay a $300 downpayment, and $50 a month on the contract via an interest-free loan, until 23 the balance was paid in full. Hill paid a $300.00 down payment to Respondent, and work on the 24 Hill Project began on or about July 13, 2012, and ended on or about July 16, 2012.

25 27. Respondent performed the work without a building permit. The cheap vinyl windows
26 which were installed by Respondent's subcontractor, B H Kruper Renovation, were substandard
27 and did not comply with the energy code in the City of Fillmore. The windows have only a .3 "U
28 Factor", but they are required by Fillmore to have a minimum of a .4 "U Factor" and a .4 SHGC

1 (Solar Heat Gain Coefficient).

2 28. On or about August 14, 2012, the homeowner received loan paperwork with a pre-
3 assigned account number for an EnerBank USA loan, which contained the following terms:
4 $4,550.00 principal, 17.05% interest, and finance charges of $3,781.96, for a total amount of
5 $9,331.96 for Respondent's window installations. Subsequently, Respondent's representative(s)
6 continued to make contact with the homeowner to have her sign the loan paperwork, through daily
7 phone calls to Hill, repeated telephone calls and intimidating and threatening text messages to her
8 relatives, and personal appearances at her home. EnerBank was advised by CSLB's investigator
9 of the bank fraud, and EnerBank agreed not to attempt to collect the balance of the fraudulent loan
10 from the homeowner.

11 FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

12 (Failure to Include License Number in Contract)

13 29. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Section 7030.5, in that on the Hill
14 Project, Respondent failed to include its contractor's license number on the contract.

15 SECOND CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

16 (Failure to Exercise Direct Supervision - Duty of Qualifier)

17 30. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Sections 7115 and 7068.1, in that 18 on the Hill Project, Respondent's RMO failed to exercise direct supervision and control of 19 construction operations. Complainant incorporates by reference the allegations set forth above in 20 Paragraphs 25 through 28, as though set forth fully herein.

21 THIRD CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

22 (Building Code Violation - No Permit)

23 31. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Section 7110, in that on the Hill
24 Project, Respondent willfully or deliberately disregarded the building code when it failed to obtain 25 the required permit(s). Complainant incorporates by reference the allegations set forth above in 26 Paragraphs 25 through 28, as though set forth fully herein.

27 FOURTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

28 (Willful or Fraudulent Act)

32. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Section 7116, in that on the Hill Project, Respondent committed willful and/or fraudulent acts when it harassed Hill, an elderly disabled woman, into agreeing to allow Respondent to install new windows and a railing at her residence, based upon fraudulent promises to Hill of a non-interest bearing loan, and then pressuring her into signing a pre-approved interest-bearing bank loan for project payment amounting to more than twice as much as the original contract amount.

FIFTH CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Violations of Home Improvement Contract Form Requirements)

33. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under Section 7159, in that on the Hill Project, Respondent violated home improvement contract drafting requirements, as follows:

a. Section 7159(d)(8)(C). Respondent failed to provide a statement in the contract with Hill in at least 12-point bold -type about down payment limitations.

b. Section 7159(d)(11)(B). Respondent failed to include the approximate date of completion of the project in the contract with Hill.

c. Section 7159(c)(B)(ii). Respondent failed to include on the first page the name and address of the contractor to which the applicable “Notice of Cancellation” is to be mailed, immediately preceded by a statement advising the buyer that the “Notice of Cancellation” may be sent to the contractor at the address noted on the contract.

d. Complainant incorporates by reference the allegations set forth above in Paragraphs 25 through 28, as though set forth fully herein.

OTHER MATTERS

34. Pursuant to Sections 7097 and 7098, if License No. 968850 issued to Respondent is suspended or revoked, the Registrar may suspend or revoke, without notice, any other license issued in the name of Stanley Deskovick and/or Nir David Ashkenazi or for which Stanley Deskovick and/or Nir David Ashkenazi furnished the qualifying experience and appearance.

35. Pursuant to Sections 7121, 7121.5, 7122 and / or 7122.5, if discipline is imposed on License No. 968850 issued to Respondent, Stanley Deskovick and/or Nir David Ashkenazi shall be prohibited from serving as an officer, director, associate, partner, manager, or qualifying

1 individual, or member of the personnel of record of a licensee of any licensee during the time the
2 discipline is imposed, and any licensee which employs, elects, or associates Stanley Deskovick
3 and/or Nir David Ashkenazi shall be subject to disciplinary action.
